Most of the scoring came from points scored by the teams you selected in The Picks at the beginning of the season.

The remainder of the points won, came from the Players picked by you, from points awarded by SofaScore and then additional points for goals, assists, clean sheets and save (for keepers).

There's a separate table showing the nest of the best at managing 'The Player' selection.

The table is shown here, with The Sedgley Stalker moving to the top after the latest round of games.

City stayed on the same points, they won all their home games against the teams relegated last season, so no change in points for them.

Chelsea beat Newcastle again, so stay 6 points better this season and in 4th place. Villa are now back ahead of Spurs on goal difference.

Chelsea are top of the Fans League. They beat Charlton this time round and are a point ahead of West Ham and Forest fans.

Round 14 is a midweek one, deadline is Tuesday 5pm

It's on the website now.

I will chase you, possibly more than once for your Guesswork.... You know I will
